BURTON GETS JAIL SENTENCE

SIX MONTHS IN IRON COUNTY, MO., JAIL AND FINE OF $2,500.

Trembled Before Judge Adams as Sentence Was Being Imposed—Application for Appeal and Stay of Execution—Out on Bond.

J. R. Burton, senior senator from this state, was sentenced Wednesday afternoon in the United States district court in St. Louis, to six months' imprisonment in the Iron county, Missouri, jail at Ironton and fined $2,500 for using his official position as senator in shielding the Rialto Grain and Securities company, of St. Louis, a "get-rich-quick" concern, from the postal authorities.

Senator Burton was convicted in the United States district court in St. Louis on six of seven indictments last week. His attorneys have entered an application for an appeal and stay of execution and offered a bond for $10,000, which was accepted.

Senator Burton came into court with Judge C. H. Krum, his attorney. He was very nervous and his hands and limbs shook visibly. In sentencing him Judge Adams said: "The sentence which I impose on you is light in comparison to the crime you committed; but because the sentence prevents you from ever holding public office again, I believe you will find the penalty severe enough."

Senator Burton declined to make a statement when advised by Judge Adams that if he had anything to say to do so before the sentence was imposed. He also refused to talk to newspaper men, except to declare that when he made a statement it would prove him innocent.

Senator Burton, who is senior senator from Kansas, was convicted after an exhaustive trial, in which various letters from him to the Rialto Grain and Securities company, the checks which he received in payment for his services in behalf of the concern before the postoffice department and the testimony of numerous agents of the government were introduced. Senator Burton's defense was that he was acting merely in the capacity of an attorney and did not employ his senatorial influence in the work.

The Future.

The husband sits in deep thought. In his hand is a huge book of philosophy. On the floor near his chair are other books, in which the world's great thinkers have set forth their views on the future life. Across the room, at a mirror, the wife is trying the effect of a new bonnet with her hair done in different styles.

"No," says the husband at last; "all these fellows are wrong about the next world."

"What is it, Henry?" asks his wife. "I have just decided that heaven is a place where women are always buying spring bonnets and the other place is a spot where the men are forever paying for them."

PLAIN CATTLE SLUGGISH.

Kansas City Market Down on Medium But Strong on Choice Stuff.

Kansas City, Mo., April 5.—Cattle receipts at all the markets last week were liberal and the proportion of beef steers at Kansas City was large. Light weight steers sold steady and with fair life, but plain heavy cattle were sluggish, and lost 15 to 25 cents. Best stockers and feeders were almost steady, but medium and common kinds sold lower. Cows and heifers sold fully steady. There was some improvement in the general market after Wednesday, and the market yesterday was strong to 10 cents higher. Run to-day is moderate for Tuesday, at 10,000 head, and prices are strong. Moore good steers are here than have been offered any day for a long time, and the demand is good. Top price is $5.25. There has been some improvement in the stocker and feeder situation this week also. Choice stockers sell from $4 to $4.50, but medium to common kinds exhibit some drag yet. A few days of bright and warm weather would help prices and movement in this line very much. Cows and heifers still hold their own, and sell better than any other class. Bulls are about steady, veal calves scarce and firm.

Hog prices changed very little last week, although fluctuations were frequent. Market was higher yesterday, but has lost the advance to-day. Light hogs now sell within 5 or 10 cents of heavy weights. Quality of hogs is as good or better, than at this time last year, but prices are $2 lower. Receipts at all the markets are running about 20 per cent heavier than a year ago. Top price to-day $5.25, bulk of sales $5.10 to $5.20.

Sheep and lamb prices are gradually improving, although still $1 to $1.50 under a year ago. Wethers and ewes sell better relatively than lambs or yearlings. An exceptional bunch of wethers, 121 head, western, sold at $5.30 yesterday. Ewes sell up to $4.75, lambs at $5.25 to $5.85, yearlings up to $5.25. —J. A. Rickart, Live Stock Correspondent.

THE GODDESS OF BEAUTY

has been worshipped from ancient times. The man who puts a new coat of paint on the fence to beautify it is as much one of her followers as the painter of pictures.

It is the house painter, however, that we want to do business with. We know he is thinking of the spring work and we are in readiness to supply all.

Paints, Oils, Colors, Varnishes, White Lead, Brushes, Etc., required for large and small jobs at lowest prices.

M. E. CHURCH APPOINTMENTS.

Doings of the Northwestern Kansas Conference at Salina.

The Northwest Kansas Conference which convened in Salina last Wednesday continued up to the following Monday evening when adjournment was finally taken. The following appointments were made for this, the Norton district:

Norton district—W. J. Meredith, presiding elder, Norton; Goodland, C. H. Muse; Achilles, supplied by G. H. Brown; Almenna, A. H. Shelton; Atwood, N. S. Ragle and H. P. Basquine; Beaver Valley, supplied by J. M. Mickey; Birkville, supplied by J. R. Thompson; Brewster, Harry Fleisher; Colby, F. L. Tempin; Colby circuit, supplied by N. W. Beauchamp; Devises, supplied by D. E. French; Dresden, S. M. Alexander; Gem, James A. Green; Jennings, Cyrus H. Cowman; Kanawa, John S. Davis; Kanorado, Oscar Gissell; Long Island, B. F. Rogers; Norcourt, Robert S. Rutledge; Norton, H. L. Lorenz; Oberlin, J. H. Miller; Phillipsburg, L. W. Kemp; Phillipsburg circuit, supplied by J. E. Hinkle; St. Francis, R. E. Dunham; Reamsville, supplied by J. E. Brown; Seiden, W. E. Jenkins; Woodruff, supplied by W. H. Hampton.

Dr. L. O. Housel and Rev. T. J. V. Taggart were elected by the conference as ministerial delegates to the general conference at San Francisco; the lay delegates chosen were: T. W. Roach, of Salina, and F. D. Kendle, of Long Island.

Dr. H. A. Cleveland announced in the last day's session that he would contribute to the library of the Kansas Wesleyan university, 1,000 volumes from his library, which is one of the largest in the state. Dr. Cleveland justly has the reputation of being one of the greatest literary men in the west. He is in his 70's now, and in his younger days held appointments in Boston, Washington and Philadelphia. He is a favorite with the students of the Kansas Wesleyan university, and they will all be glad to hear that Mr. Cleveland is going to enrich the library with a thousand of his good books.

BIG PRAIRIE FIRE.
Large Territory Burned Over in Wallace and Logan Counties.

A prairie fire started south of the Smoky creek, on the line of Logan and Wallace counties, and nearly four miles south of the Sherman county line, last Tuesday afternoon. It is estimated that 65,000 acres were burned over in Logan and Wallace counties, and large amounts of hay were burned up.

It is supposed that the fire was started by a steam thrasher going over the country toward Winona. M. L. Chandler and others, living on the southeast line of this county, put out 17 miles of the north line of the fire; working until 3 o'clock in the afternoon of that day until 3 o'clock the following morning.

At first the wind was from the south, but later swung around and blew from the north, and the fire was driven as far as the Union Pacific railroad. The fire was plainly visible from Goodland, Tuesday evening.

The Tom Thumb Entertainment.
"Mr. and Mrs. Midget requests your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Lillian Putnam to Mr. Tom Thumb, Tuesday, April 5, 1904, at 8 o'clock, at the opera house. No presents accepted. Admission 15 and 25 cents."

This was the announcement to the public of an entertainment given Tuesday evening under the direction of May Burnsworth, of Independence, Kan. It was a modern and stylish wedding in miniature, the very little folks being chosen to act out the parts. The girls were dressed in trailing gowns and the boys in evening dress suits. The little folks in pairs were escorted to the stage to the rhythm of the wedding march, and after all were seated one of the number performed the ceremony, after which supper was served to the bridal party. Little Miss Tapper and little Mr. Coleman were the bride and groom. The receipts amounted to $33.20, fifty per cent of which went to the Christian church.

Souvenir From Railroad Men's Home.
Mrs. O'Brien has received a souvenir from her husband, C. H. O'Brien, who is in the Railroad Men's home at Highland Park, Ill. It consists of a piece of muslin, in which is worked in with a needle and brown yarn the names of all the inmates of the home. Considering that the souvenir is the work of an old, infirm railroad man, it is far from being a rough piece of fancy work. C. H. Gardner, an inmate, made it for O'Brien. The names on the muslin are: C. H. Gardner, A. L. May, C. Mathias, H. Warren, conductors; C. W. Tice, J. J. Bellaire, F. Krahl, F. Allepaugh, C. H. O'Brien, firemen; J. V. Buskirk, J. Rodebaugh, C. Davis, G. Wheeler, F. Lanus, brakemen; C. T. Whitehouse, L. H. Meeker, M. Zumbach, C. C. Jones, F. Durlin, P. Wilcox, H. J. Ryan, L. Dana, G. Potter, W. Lowther, J. Nezzar, engineers.

Robbed the Grave.
A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at Moore & Stevenson's drug store.

ESTELLA B. LUSTIG NOT GUILTY

HER HUSBAND DENIED DIVORCE AT TRIAL IN DENVER.

Mr. and Mrs. Lustig Once Lived in Goodland—Cruelty and Desertion Husband's Plea—Both Parties Cleared by Verdict.

The jury in the Lustig divorce case in Denver Tuesday returned a verdict finding Mrs. Estella B. Lustig not guilty of the charges made against her by Joseph Lustig, her husband. The charges were cruelty and desertion, and the desertion consisted in placing Mr. Lustig's clothes and things out on the back porch and locking the back door of the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Lustig lived in Goodland several years, and before Mr. Lustig was promoted about five years ago to passenger conductor on the Rock Island between Denver and Phillipsburg, he was conductor in the freight service out of Goodland.

Mr. Lustig in his original complaint charged his wife with desertion by forcing him by might and main to leave the home, at 2324 Grove street. Mr. Lustig said that on several occasions he went away from home, and when he returned he found his clothes piled up into a neat little bundle lying on the back porch. When he tried the doors of his house they were bolted and barred. This occurred so often that the husband finally moved the little bundle from the back porch and took it down to the Windsor hotel.

Mr. Lustig further said that his life became unbearable at home because of the frequent charges made against him by his wife that he had been guilty of infidelity. Mrs. Lustig is portrayed in the complaint as a woman of jealous, sullen disposition. She had him arrested August 26, 1902, for non-support.

Mrs. Lustig alleges that her husband attempted to force her to secure a divorce and the Handley woman also wanted her to secure a divorce from Mr. Lustig. Lustig, she alleges, told her that he wished she would secure a divorce as he wanted to marry the Handley woman.

Various acts of cruelty and physical violence are charged against Mr. Lustig.

Mrs. Lustig said that the plaintiff deserted her, and that he was guilty of acts of infidelity with one Mary Handley, who the defendant was forced to take into her own house as a roomer during the months of May and June, 1902. After the plaintiff left the home on Grove street, it is claimed, these acts of infidelity were continued.

As to the verdict, a special finding was made at the request of attorneys for both sides. This was to the effect that both parties were innocent of the charges of infidelity which were made in the pleadings. The pugilistic tilt which took place at the close of the case between Attorneys John C. Bottom and B. C. Hilliard was satisfactorily settled by mutual apologies.

ATTEMPTED HOLD-UP.

First State Bank of Norton Was Tried, But Robber Lost His Courage.

An unsuccessful attempt was made to rob the First State Bank at Norton, Saturday. A stranger entered the bank and at the cashier's window he poked a large revolver in the face of John Wray, the cashier, and demanded: "Your money or your life, quick or I'll shoot."

The cashier grabbed the revolver barrel and turned it aside, then ducked his head below the counter, the would-be robber became frightened, ran out of the building, turned the corner and darted into an alley. When the cashier recovered from his shock, he telephoned Sheriff Hatcher, who organized a posse and began a search. Telegrams were sent to surrounding towns, but at the latest reports nothing had been heard. The stranger was described by the cashier as about 20 years old, tall and slim and wearing overalls.

Smith-King.
Miss Lillie King, of Goodland, and Mr. Forest Smith, of Canon City, Colo., were married Easter Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James George, Rev. J. E. Stevens, officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ida King, and the groom is a young business man of Canon City. The bridal couple received beautiful presents in silverware and Haviland china. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for their home on No. 41 in the afternoon and were accompanied to the depot by many of their friends, some of whom showered their compliments in large quantities of rice upon the departing pair. Other innocent pranks were played, more for the reason that the newly married couple were young enough to receive such things with much more of playful gaiety than of painful embarrassment. Though Mr. Smith's stay in Goodland was very brief, he at once made himself popular with all those he met, and his bride leaves admiring friends behind who wish that the future for herself and husband may be all of joy.

A Great Sensation.
There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis and grip are numerous. It's the poorest remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by Moore & Stevenson, druggists. Trial bottles free.

A. FENDER DEAD.

Pioneer of Western Kansas Taken Off by Pneumonia.

A. Fender, who moved to Sherman county from Lee county, Illinois, seventeen years ago, died of pneumonia at his home one mile and a half northwest of Goodland, Friday night at 10:20 o'clock. Rev. J. S. Madden, of Holden, Mo., came here to preach the funeral sermon, which was held at the home Sunday forenoon and burial was made in the Goodland cemetery. The deceased was 61 years of age.

The attack of pneumonia which resulted in the death of Mr. Fender had its beginning in a cold. During the day of March 23, he was doing outdoor work, and occasionally would complain of distress and painful feelings in his chest, but did not cease from his labor.

When evening came he told his family he did not feel well, but did not experience any great discomfort from his condition, and he thought he would be able to throw off the indisposition. But the inflammation increased and the following day a high fever set in and Dr. Smith was called. Double pneumonia rapidly developed with varying fortunes in the outlook for recovery. When his lungs had cleared themselves of nearly all of the foreign matter and the fever had gone, it was thought that the patient would pull through, but the intense run of fever had so weakened his bodily forces that death came in the attempt to rally.

Mr. Fender was married in Lee county, Illinois, in 1866, and of that union ten children have been born, and all are living excepting one. The surviving children were present at the funeral but Ed, who is living in Holden, Mo. A large number of people were in attendance at the funeral despite the day was rainy and disagreeable.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Fender came to Sherman county in 1887, and have lived continuously on their farm northwest of town since that time. Mr. Fender was one of the staunch and thrifty farmers of this county.

The two youngest boys are living on the farm with their mother. One of the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Fender was married several months ago to Mr. E. J. Scott, well known to the people of this town and county.

Goodland Boy Getting Better.

Luther Douglas, a brother of Mrs. H. C. Hall and Mrs. I. C. Spencer, who accidentally shot himself below the knee sixteen months ago—the ball ranging upward and being taken out back of the knee joint—is doing quite well at Allen & Hadley's hospital, all things considered. He can now walk around the hospital ward on crutches and can handle himself without assistance. This case shows the remarkable fortitude of a human being and the ability to stand intense suffering and yet live. The wound made by the ball was poisoned and has contained formations of pus during the greater part of the sixteen months. It has been drained time and time again, only to reappear at another place in the limb. Through all his suffering Luther never lost faith in ultimate recovery. How many men are there who could lie in a bed with nothing the matter with them that length of time without dying?—Telluride (Colo.) Journal, March 28.

Luther Douglas is the son of Mrs. Sarah Douglas, who lives a mile and a half northwest of this city.

Birthday Party.

Frances Barsby, who was six years old Tuesday, celebrated the day by a party, inviting her acquaintances to her home in the afternoon, where they were royally received and dined. Many pretty presents were given to little Miss Barsby in token of the day.

Lost.

Silver watch and silver chain, three weeks ago, on streets of Goodland. Finder please return or leave word at this office.

Save the Loved Ones!

Mrs. Mary A. Vliet, Newcastle, Colo., writes: "I believe Ballard's Horehound Syrup is superior to any other cough medicine, and will do all that is claimed for it, and it is so pleasant to take. My little girl wants to take it when she has no need for it." Ballard's Horehound Syrup is the great cure for all pulmonary ailments. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at Arensberg & Cullen's.

SWITCHMAN LUSTIG INJURED.

Foot Crushed by Flinch Bar While Riding Up Coal Chute—Taken to Hospital.

A pinch bar was forced through the fleshy part of Switchman P. J. Lustig's right foot at 6 o'clock Saturday night, all of the ligaments and muscles being lacerated and torn from the bones. Lustig was given temporary relief by Dr. P. H. Smith, who is railroad surgeon at this place, and then he was taken to a Colorado Springs hospital for special treatment. If the wound can be kept free from poisoning, it is thought the foot can be saved.

The accident happened while Lustig was riding up the coal chute track on the foot board of the switch engine. A pinch bar had been placed under a wheel of a box car so that the bar was slanting upward, and as the engine approached to couple on, the bar struck the right foot of Lustig on the plantar surface and was forced through the flesh of his foot before he could escape it. It produced an ugly wound, his foot being pinioned by the bar to the platform upon which he was standing.

The blood vessels were of course ruptured and the switchman lost a large quantity of blood. No bones were broken, and it is thought the foot can be saved.

Lustig is married and his family lives in Goodland. He is a brother of Joseph Lustig, a passenger conductor.

Engineer Berry for Denver Councilman.

The friends of Joseph H. Berry, who lives at 1236 South Tenth street in Denver, but who is an engineer on the Rock Island on the Limon-Denver run and well known in Goodland, are quietly and effectively booming him for alderman from the Eleventh ward, on the democratic ticket. Mr. Berry is 38 years of age. He was raised in the Eleventh ward, where he is well and most favorably known. It is believed he will secure a large railroad and labor vote.

APRIL TERM OF COURT.

The Grist of the Docket Consumed But About Two Days.

The district court of the Thirty-fourth judicial district sitting for Sherman county, convened Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock and after trying all the cases on the docket, adjourned Wednesday afternoon. The great majority of the cases had to do with foreclosure proceedings and the quieting of title to land.

Judge and Mrs. Smith arrived Monday night and returned Wednesday evening to their home in Stockton.

Rain Fell Sunday.

After a long stretch of dry weather a welcome rain fell Sunday forenoon. Not a great amount fell, but it did much good and may be the beginning of a favorable season.

FOUND TOM SULLIVAN'S BODY

WIFE KEPT UP HIS INSURANCE AND WILL GET AMOUNT OF CLAIM.

Sullivan Once Well Known in Goodland as Railroad Brakeman—Drunk Killed Him, and Unknown, Was Buried in Potter's Field in Denver.

Tom Sullivan, a railroad brakeman, at one time in the employ of the Rock Island and a resident of Goodland, died at the county hospital in Denver, February 5 last. Nothing was known of him beyond his name, and the body was buried in the potter's field.

Sunday, W. P. Collup, secretary of the Goodland lodge of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, visited the hospital, and from facts gathered identified the late patient as Sullivan.

Six years ago Sullivan entered the employ of the Rock Island, and some years later parted from his wife on account of domestic troubles caused by his drinking, and morally rapidly went to destruction. He was arrested in Denver last January as a common vagrant. On being released he celebrated the fact by getting drunk and died two days later from the effects of the spree, his death being directly due to pneumonia.

Since the separation Sullivan's wife, who is now in Inisfail, Canada, has paid his dues in the trainmen's organization, and the establishment of her late husband's identity will bring her $1,350 insurance.

The body may be disinterred and brought to Goodland for final burial.

ELECTION VERY QUIET.

New Set of Councilmen and Members of Board of Education.

The city election, which came off Tuesday, April 5, was very quiet because only one ticket was in the field, and the registration very light. In the First ward the voting place was held in the office of the register of deeds in the court house; in the Second ward in the council room of the city waterworks building, and in the Third ward in the sample room of the Millisack building. The unofficial report said that 11 votes were cast in the First ward, 20 in the Second, and in the Third ward 21.

Following are the persons elected from the various precincts: First Ward—Councilman, J. H. Stewart; members board of education, S. A. Moulton, J. J. Knight.

Second Ward—Councilman, W. Powers; member board education, C. E. Biddison.

Third Ward—Councilman, H. M. Heston; member board education, W. P. Brinker.

Chalkley A. Wilson was elected police judge.

The official count will be made by the council Friday night.

Church Notes.

St. Paul's church was fitted with new altar hangings for Easter day. The hangings are of symbolic white and are trimmed with gold. The altar and the chancel were adorned with carnations, ferns and Easter lilies, and altogether the little church took on a very festive appearance for this joyous occasion of the church year.

At the children's meeting held in the afternoon of Easter day, Rev. C. L. Adams presented silver crosses to those of the Sunday school who had completed learning the catechism before Easter. The children who received crosses were Pearl Claxton, Frank McBride and Frank Brown.

At St. Paul's church, Sunday, April 10: Holy communion, 6:30 a. m.; morning prayer and sermon 11 a. m.; evening prayer and sermon, 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school 10 a. m. All are cordially invited.

Sales of Stamps.

Postmaster Stevens reports that the stamp sales at the Goodland postoffice have been large the last twelve months, the total receipts for the fiscal year ending March 31, being $3,600.

Herbless Cures.

Fever and Ague. A dose will usually stop a chill, a continuance always cures. Mrs. Wm. M. Stroud, Midlothian, Texas, May 31, 1899, writes: "We have used Herbine in our family for eight years, and found it the best medicine we have ever used, for la grippe, bilious fever and malaria." 50c at Arensberg & Cullen's.
